How effectively are you communicating your message?

Dale Carnegie and the Fremont Chamber of Commerce present:

Simplifying Business Communication

This 2 hour communication workshop is designed to engage participants in organizing ideas and convincing listeners to take positive action. Whether bringing ideas to your supervisor, initiating change with a co-worker, or motivating your team to higher levels of performance, you have opportunities to persuade others daily.

This workshop will help you:
- Identify opportunities for clear and concise communication
- Better organize thoughts and deliver ideas with clarity
- Develop skills to “think on your feet” in any situation
- Discover the process to get others to take action
- Communicate with confidence
- Learn 9 ways to become more approachable and likeable
